Charming 5 bedroom Countryside Villa set in 42,000sqm of land, close to Burgau

Set in the Western Algarve, this secluded countryside retreat combines privacy, panoramic views, and close proximity to the coast, all within easy reach of local amenities. The five-bedroom villa with swimming pool enjoys an elevated position with a southerly orientation, filling the interiors with natural light. Located at the end of a quiet no-through lane, the property is surrounded by approximately 42,000 square metres of land, offering exceptional space and tranquillity. Situated within the Costa Vicentina Natural Park, the property benefits from a protected setting where future development is restricted, preserving the area's natural beauty. Boca do Rio beach can be reached on foot or horseback without crossing national roads—a rare and valuable feature. The landscape is enriched with almond, olive, carob, and fig trees, all fruit-bearing, while winter brings the striking white almond blossom that brightens the countryside in January and February.
